

Medi-Cal Member Reward Cards Program

IMPROVE YOUR HEDIS® SCORES AND HELP YOUR PATIENTS EARN REWARDS

When patients close their care gaps, your Healthcare Effectiveness Data and Information Set (HEDIS®) scores improve.

Help close patient care gaps

- Reach out to help schedule their office visits for the below health care activities.
- Educate and promote timely completion of these health care activities.

Activities that earn your patients rewards

Health Net* Medi-Cal members eligible for our reward cards program will receive instructions on how to redeem rewards from Health Net.

When members close their care gaps and earn a prepaid gift card, your HEDIS scores improve.

Each step counts

1 Program details. Eligible members will receive information with complete instructions about the program through email, automated call or a mailer.
2 Complete health care activities. Members schedule suggested screenings and complete their health care activities by December 31, 2019.
3 Provide proof of completion. Members can attest to completion of health care activities by telephone, mail or online. Doctor attestation is not required.
4 Gift cards issued. After attestation, members will have an option to choose a reward card for their completed health care activities.

For questions about the Health Net Medi-Cal Member Reward Cards program, members can call the Member Services number on their member identification (ID) card.

Note: Eligible members can receive only one incentive for completing the same visits or screenings in 2019.
