

Take Steps to Reduce and Manage Implicit Bias

Join the FREE two-part virtual training series and earn up to 4 CME/CE credits!

Every person is entitled to dignity and respect. Learn more about implicit (unconscious) bias, a key cause that drives health disparities in communities of color. The two-part series will provide insight on ways to improve diversity and equity in the health care setting. Each session is two hours.

Topics discussed

- Definition, cause and impact of implicit bias.
- Implicit bias in the health care setting.
- Tools to reduce and manage implicit bias.
- The National Training Institute on Race and Equity (NTIRE) Assessment, Awareness and Action model – an evidence-based approach to improving diversity, equity and inclusion.

Presented by

Dr. Bryant T. Marks, Sr., Founder and Chief Equity Officer of NTIRE
